4 BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of the State of New
5 Jersey (the Senate concurring):

6
7 1. The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of 8 the State of New Jersey is agreed to:

9
10 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

11
12 a. Amend Article IV, Section VI, paragraph 2 to read as 13 follows:

14 2. (a) The Legislature may enact general laws under which
15 municipalities, other than counties, may adopt zoning ordinances
16 limiting and restricting to specified districts and regulating therein, 17 buildings and structures, according to their construction, and the 18 nature and extent of their use, and the nature and extent of the uses 19 of land, and the exercise of such authority shall be deemed to be 20 within the police power of the State. Such laws shall be subject to 21 repeal or alteration by the Legislature.

22 (b) The affordable housing needs of the State, the means by 23 which those needs may be fulfilled, and the consequences for 24 noncompliance shall be determined only by the Legislature through 25 the enactment of general laws.

26
27 2. When this proposed amendment to the Constitution is finally
28 agreed to pursuant to Article IX, paragraph 1 of the Constitution, it
29 shall be submitted to the people at the next general election
30 occurring more than three months after the final agreement and 31 shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of each
32 county designated by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the 33 General Assembly and the Secretary of State, not less than three 34 months prior to the general election.

35
36 3. This proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be 37 submitted to the people at that election in the following manner and 38 form:

39 There shall be printed on each official ballot to be used at the 40 general election, the following:

41 a. In every municipality in which voting machines are not used,

STATEMENT

8

9 This amendment to the State Constitution provides that the 10 constitutional obligation to make available affordable housing, and 11 the means by which this obligation may be fulfilled, can only be 12 determined by the Legislature.

13 The New Jersey Supreme Court has ruled that there is a
14 constitutional obligation to provide a realistic opportunity for the 15 construction of affordable housing in accordance with the present

1 and prospective need for low and moderate income housing.
2 Following the dissolution of the Council on Affordable Housing,
3 the Superior Court has become responsible for determining the 4 number of affordable housing units that are needed throughout the 5 State. However, the New Jersey Supreme Court indicated in 6 multiple rulings, including Southern Burlington County NAACP v.
7 Mount Laurel, 92 N.J. 158 (1983) and Hills Development Co. v.
8 Bernards, 103 N.J. 1 (1986), that the determination of the methods
9 for satisfying this constitutional obligation “is better left to the 10 Legislature.”

11 Accordingly, this amendment proposes to amend the State
12 Constitution to provide that the constitutional obligation to make 13 available affordable housing, the means by which this obligation
14 can be fulfilled, and the possible consequences for noncompliance,
15 may only be determined by the Legislature through the enactment
16 of general legislation.
